

“Costa Blanca for Visitors and Residents 2023.”

In the series "Costa Blanca the Place to Live and Visit".

To be filmed during the spring of 2023 and to premiere in June 2023.

This upcoming film for TV- and social media with information about Costa Blanca is the 29th film in the series called “Costa Blanca – the place to live and visit” filmed by the well-known Danish filmmaker and composer Theo Newton.

The purpose of the new film is to promote businesses and attractions in the area to tourists as well as the huge international community living there and being interested in the area. The info-documentary film will be aired on UPNOW's local- and regional TV Channel reaching over 50.000 international residents and visitors.

UPNOW Costa Blanca will also promote the film to the hundreds of thousands of international viewers interested in the Costa Blanca via online channels.

We are looking for 15 businesses and attractions to be featured. The informational documentaries that have already premiered since 2016 have collectively, with their trailers, reached over 1,6 million local and international viewers on social media! Our analytics confirm that the films have had 1,2 million views on YouTube alone!
